The Appendix

This Appendix covers the historical gap between the Preamble and the Articles of the constitution which follow it:

On 6 January 1976, in St. George's Cathedral, Jerusalem, the Rt. Revd. Robert Stopford, Vicar General of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury (Frederick Donald Coggan) read aloud in the presence of the congregation the following: --

I. Deed of Relinquishment

Greeting:

WHEREAS We have agreed to relinquish our Metropolitan jurisdiction over the said Archbishopric in Jerusalem to the intent that the Central<sup>1</sup> Synod of the Episcopal Church in the Middle East shall exercise the said jurisdiction hitherto possessed by US.

AND WHEREAS the said Central Synod shall enjoy the rights and perform the functions as are contained in the Constitution of the said Central Synod which we have approved.

NOW THEREFORE WE FREDERICK DONALD LORD ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY PRIMATE OF ALL ENGLAND AND METROPOLITAN do hereby relinquish all Metropolitan and Episcopal jurisdiction over the said Archbishopric in Jerusalem.

GIVEN under Our hand and archiepiscopal seal this sixth of January in the year of Our Lord One Thousand nine hundred and seventy six and in the second year of Our Translation.

(sgd.) DONALD CANTUAR

II. Anglican Consultative Council Explanations

In none of the official documents was the word "Province" used in relationship to the Episcopal Church in Jerusalem in the Middle East. Doubts having been raised as to the ecclesiastical status of the new Church, enquiry was made of the ecclesiastical authorities, and the following reply was received a letter from the Secretary General of the Anglican Consultative Council, dated 20th June 1978, of which a copy was sent to the Archbishop of Canterbury.

- a. "The Episcopal Church in Jerusalem and the Middle East is an autonomous Anglican Province." "By the Archbishop of Canterbury's mandate read at the institution of the Province in Jerusalem on 6 January 1976 he surrendered his Metropolitan jurisdiction to the newly constituted Central Synod.
- b. "Metropolitan jurisdiction must be legally regarded as relinquished and not delegated."

<sup>1</sup> The original language used at the point the Deed of Relinquishment in 1976 was of a "Central Synod". Whilst the term has now been amended (in the 2021 revisions to the constitution) to refer to the Synod as a "Provincial Synod" reflecting the language commonly used in the Anglican Communion, the original language has been retained in this appendix for the sake of historical accuracy.

- c. "The full autonomy of the Church is assured but provision is also made for the maintenance of Metropolitan jurisdiction in certain eventualities."

In the light of these documents the Constitution has been revised and amended, the amendments having been accepted in due Constitutional form by the Central Synod at its Second meeting on 29th November 1978, and by the Diocesan Synods or Councils as stated on the bottom of page 15.

C.S. 80/8

III. CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS Nov. 18. 1980 NICOSIA CYPRUS

- a. Ref. C.S. 78/18 Regarding the Powers of the Standing Committee.
Both the Dioceses of Egypt on Oct 1980 and Jerusalem on Sept. 1980 formally approved the new powers, Iran approved it on Oct. 10. 1979 and Cyprus and the Gulf on March 1979.
It was therefore agreed to incorporate these powers in the text of the Constitution as final.
N.B. They were incorporated.

- b. It was voted that the following be added at the end of Article II (v)

"Provided further that the decision of the Central Synod shall be reached within three months and, if necessary, by correspondence if the Central Synod is not in session."

N.B. Jerusalem approved it on Sep. 1980. The other dioceses approved it but dates were not yet given to the secretary.

This text was also incorporated.

- b. Notice of Proposal for amending the Constitution of the Central Synod in accordance with Article 16 (i) in the grey book.
a. In Article II. A. (iv) delete

"On the vacancy of a bishopric"

Substitute:--

"On being notified that a bishopric in any of its constituent dioceses is about to become vacant...."

- c. The Central Synod recommends that Articles in Diocesan Constitutions which deal with the appointment of bishops be amended to provide the President Bishop be informed when the office of the bishop is about to be vacant.
d. The Central Synod authorises the Secretary to print only the Constitution of the Central synod with approved amendments, and further amendments will be added when proposed and approved.

The above points were agreed Nov. 18, 1980 by the Central Synod.
